

Our 100th Anniversary Merchandise Activity is being conducted by Mr. Robert Jesionowski's Graphics Communication Classes. This educational program was designed as a component of our Innovative Technology focus to give our students the opportunity to manufacture and distribute merchandise throughout the school.

Alumni Mini Grants have helped the classes each year by providing extra materials that can be used to produce items to be used as incentives and rewards for the entire student body.

The Bennett Alumni Association, Inc. is deeply appreciative of all that Mr. Jesionowski and his students do to help us.

No better example of Bennett's Mission can be found than in the November 24, 1925 Dedication Remarks made by Founding Principal Dr. Charles E. Rhodes in his "Making a Dream Come True" speech.

"I believe we are serving the interests of good citizenship, good school life and good character.

"To attain her (Bennett's) ideals will not be easy; no good thing ever is, but it is possible."

Now, 100 years later, Bennett students and staff continue to look to our creed and our motto - The Best is Yet To Be!

Bennett Creed

I believe in Bennett High School and all for which she stands:

- In scholarship and the work necessary to attain it;
- In good sportsmanship and in the self-control, sacrifice and patience it involves;
- In school spirit manifested in loyalty, devotion and a high sense of honor;
- In courtesy based upon the just consideration for the rights and privileges of others and shown upon all occasions, by manly and womanly conduct towards teachers, pupils and visitors;
- In all that promotes good citizenship and helpful service in public and private life;
- In building of character as the only worthy crown of all education that is true and enduring.
